FAQ SERIES: WHAT QUESTIONS
SHOULD PEOPLE ASK WHEN LOOKING TO HIRE AN ATTORNEY?

Every family law case is different so the client should think about what issues are most concerning for him/her. With that said, there are certain routine questions that a prospective client should ask. How and for what will the client be billed? Does the attorney recommend alternate dispute resolution alternatives? What is the best way to stay in touch with his/her attorney? These are just a few. Most important, the client must be comfortable with and trust his/her attorney. This is why the initial meeting with the attorney is critical. It gives the client the opportunity to assess the attorney and determine whether the attorney is equipped to address his/her objectives.
