KAREN ROSE KARPOUSIS VOLUNTEERS WITH FAMILY ASSIST PROJECT HELPING LOW-INCOME INDIVIDUALS WITH FAMILY LAW MATTERS

In March 2016, the South Jersey Legal Services (SJLS) Private Attorney Involvement Program introduced the Family Assist Project to provide low-income individuals with family law questions both advice and practical information for navigating the often-complex court system. Through this Project, 96 low-income individuals in Burlington, Camden and Gloucester counties have received a 30-minute consultation to discuss their personal family law issue(s). Ms. Karpousis is a regular volunteer for South Jersey Legal Services and says, "it is important and rewarding to give back to people in our community."
