MAY 2018

Now that spring has seemingly sprung, we are excited to say these past several months have been filled with activity at the firm. From supporting Go Red For Women and other community efforts to recognition for expertise in divorce and family law, we have definitely not been in hibernation. Here are some of the latest news pieces we'd like share.

PARTNERS KAREN ROSE KARPOUSIS AND MICHELLE ALTIERI NAMED 2018 NEW JERSEY SUPER LAWYERS

Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian is pleased to announce that partners Karen Rose Karpousis and Michelle Altieri were each named one of the 2018 New Jersey Super Lawyers* in recognition of their expertise in divorce and family law. The Super Lawyer honor is awarded after implementing an extensive multistage process using peer nominations and evaluations as well as independent research. Those candidates in each practice area with the highest totals are selected and recognized in their respective field.

CHARNY KARPOUSIS ALTIERI & DONOIAN MAKES BREAKFAST FOR RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE OF SNJ FAMILIES

Earlier this year, the firm's attorneys and their families came together for a morning of down home cooking and volunteering at the Ronald McDonald House of Southern New Jersey. Families enjoyed a homemade breakfast of traditional favorites – eggs, pancakes, waffles and more. According to RMHSNJ, the House has served more than 27,000 families of children with critical illnesses or traumatic injuries. "Giving back is important to every member of our team," said partners Karpousis, Altieri and Donoian. "The effort is small in comparison to the priceless reward."

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ERIKA GOLDBERG BECOMES CASA FOR CHILDREN IN BURLINGTON COUNTY

A strong proponent of children's rights, Erika Goldberg was recently sworn in as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for Burlington County. This judge-appointed volunteer position is more than one of caring, CASA looks to find safe, permanent homes for abused and/or neglected children. Said Erika, "This is something I've wanted to do for so long. I can't wait to get started and be able to make a difference in the lives of kids in our community."

FIRM PARTNER AND SENIOR ASSOCIATE MENTOR YOUNG WOMEN AT THE ALICE PAUL INSTITUTE

Partner Karen Karpousis was joined by senior associate Rebecca Berger for a 3-night mentoring event at the Alice Paul Institute in Mount Laurel, NJ. Designed to prepare members of the Girls Advisory Council for the Alice Paul Equality Awards, Karen and Rebecca coached young women on how to introduce themselves and effectively interact with adults. This is not the first time members of the firm mentored at the Institute. They regularly share their experience and provide guidance about educational and career options to high school students.
