Nicole Donoian-Pody

Partner Nicole Donoian-Pody Appointed to the Women's Board of The Cooper Foundation

To further her commitment to charitable causes and giving back to the community, Nicole Donoian-Pody has been appointed to the Women's Board of The Cooper Foundation. The board, which began as a volunteer auxiliary committee in 1919, supports the goals and objectives of Cooper Hospital through volunteerism, fundraising and community outreach with a focus on those causes that support women and children. Speaking of the newly appointed approval by the board in late September Donoian-Pody said, "This is a great honor. It is a dynamic group of individuals and their reputation is one of true altruism."

Karen Rose Karpousis Volunteers to Provide Immigration Processing
 Assistance For Arriving Afghans

Earlier this month, firm partner Karen Rose Karpousis volunteered for the day with Catholic Charities to provide immigration processing assistance in the ongoing relocation of arriving Afghans at a military base in New Jersey. In speaking of her experience, Karen shared, "Helping others in need is always gratifying but this experience was unique. Listening to the Afghans share stories of their personal journey was humbling but at the end of each interview was a message of hope and gratitude which was inspiring."
