Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian Continues Its Commitment to Giving

This past holiday season, Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian continued its commitment in helping and making a difference in the lives of others. Here are just some of the firm's efforts as part of our on-going community commitment:

For a second year in a row, Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian made a monetary donation to the Kresson Elementary School Feed-A-Family for Thanksgiving. The Kresson families and CKA&D provided a record number of 60 full Thanksgiving meal to families in financial need.

When the Ronald McDonald House of SNJ Polar Express left the station in December, the firm was once again on board as a proud sponsor of this fun-filled adventure for children and their families who are currently staying at the "House."

On the heels of riding the Polar Express, firm partner Nicole Donoian-Pody put her gift-wrapping skills to good use at the Deptford Mall Gift Wrap booth this past weekend - all to support the RMHSNJ mission of "providing hope, help and home for families of seriously ill children."

In a joint statement, the firm partners shared "we believe that giving feels good no matter the day or time of year and it is so easy to help make a difference. We look forward to supporting efforts year-round and encourage others to join us."

Firm Partner Michelle Altieri Takes Part in CCBA Professionalism Day 2021

Michelle Altieri was a featured speaker at the Camden County Bar Association (CCBA) CLE course on "Professionalism in Virtual Practice - Lessons Learned." The Trustee of the CCBA Board of Trustees and Co-Chair of the CCBA Family Law Committee joined a panel of her peers to discuss this key topic that remains relevant as attorneys continue to navigate the practice of law in the new Covid-19 world. Topics included practicing with the use of video conferencing and other virtual platforms.
