Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian celebrates 5 years!

"It's hard to believe how quickly the time has gone," the firm's partners said jointly. "We have an incredible firm and we are so grateful to everyone who has helped us reach this milestone. Words cannot adequately express our gratitude to our loyal clients who trust us with their family law matters, and our dedicated support staff who work tirelessly beside us. We would be remiss to not also acknowledge our loving families and friends who encouraged us to embark on this endeavor. Thank you to everyone. We wouldn't have reached this anniversary without you."

Longtime Volunteer Karen Rose Karpousis Shares Thoughts on Pro Bono Work and Giving Back

Firm partner Karen Rose Karpousis, Esq. is not only an advocate for her clients, she is one who believes strongly in giving back to those in need. It is something that was instilled in her by her parents at a very early age. Her efforts include volunteering through the South Jersey Legal Services Family Assist Project, which she once again did last month. Here are just some of Karen's thoughts on pro bono work, its importance and why she prioritizes helping others.

Erika L. Goldberg Mentors Young Women on Education, Career Paths and Professional Choices

Earlier this month, senior associate Erika L. Goldberg once again took part in the Alice Paul Institute (API) Girls Leadership Council Mentorship program, in which young women at API are able to ask questions about mentors' education background, career path and professional choices while expanding their network for the future. As in past years, participants were highly engaged, shared great excitement and expressed true gratitude. This program is just one of the ways API seeks to further its mission for gender equality through education and leadership development.

New Associate Leighann Reilly Leads Inn of Court' Adopt-A-Family Fundraising/Outreach Program

Like others at Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian, our newest associate, Leighann Reilly, is a strong proponent of giving back. As an Executive Committee member and Chair of the community outreach committee for The Thomas S. Forkin Family Law American Inn of Court, Leighann once again led the organization's yearly Adopt-A-Family fundraising/outreach program. Through the fundraising efforts spearheaded by Leighann, The Forkin Inn of Court was able to adopt 10 families this past year (the largest number of families adopted to date) and provide them with holiday meals and gift cards.
